

DEATH PENALTY FOR TORTURING & KILLING CHILD

District & Session Judge Attok awarded death penalty to father and life imprisonment to step-mother for torturing & killing their 7-year's old daughter, named Qurat Ul Ain of Mansehra.

According to detail, provided by Child Protection Unit Abbottabad, they have been informed about the victim of violence, a seven-year's old girl admitted in Ayub Teaching Hospital Abbottabad. Qurat Ul Ain was tortured by her father namely Muhamad Asghar & step-mother in Kamra where her father was serving. Qurat Ul Ain was brutally wounded with needles & burning. CPU Abbottabad assured full legal support to her grandfather, who somehow had succeeded to bring her to Abbottabad. However, unfortunately Qurat Ul Ain could not succumb to injuries & died on 18 September 2016 due to serious infections in her wounds. The case was registered in Kamra & her father Asghar & step mother were arrested. During the hearing, CPO Abbottabad Farzana fully cooperated with Attock Police & appeared herself as witness.

Finally, Qurat Ul Ain got justice on February 9, 2017 when District & Sessions Judge Attok awarded death sentence to Asghar, father of Qurat Ul Ain & life imprisonment to her stepmother.
